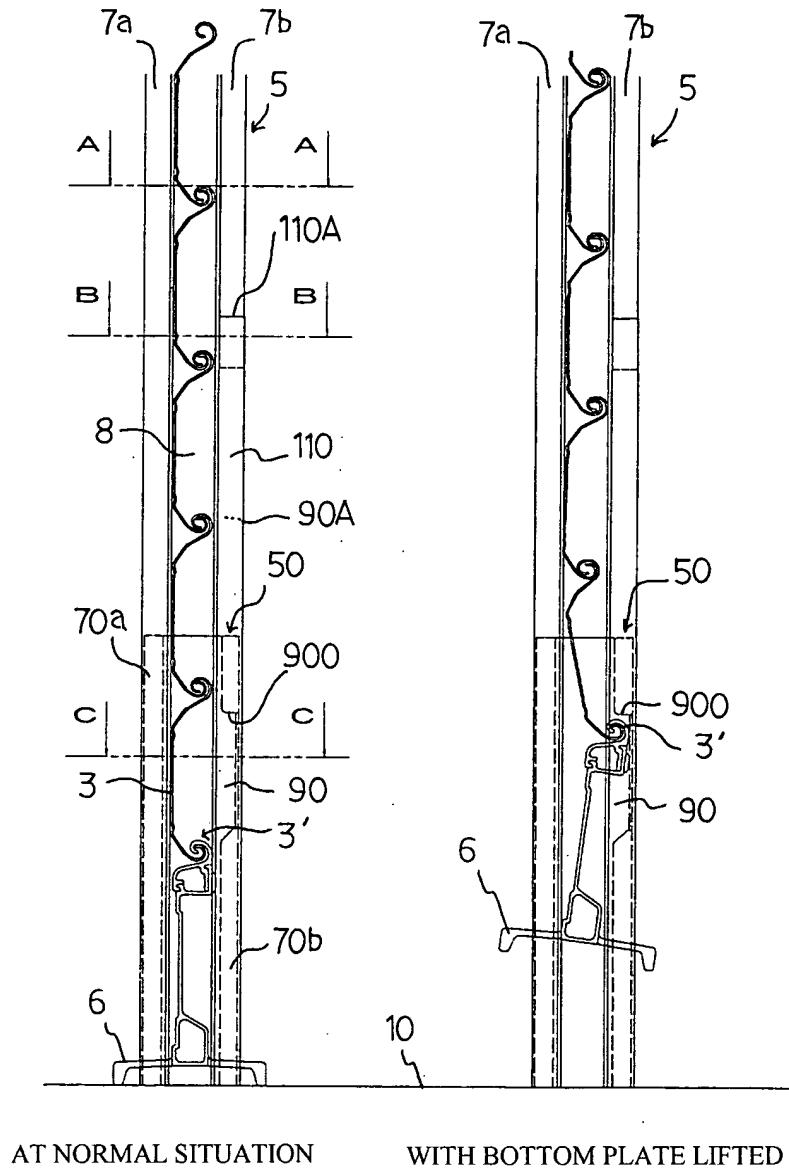

Fig. 1 shows two cross-sectional views of a frame assembly. The left view is a C-C cross section, and the right view is a B-B cross section. Both views show a rectangular frame with a top rail (5) and side rails (50). The bottom rail (80) is shown in cross-section, with a detail view (90A) showing a cross-section of the bottom rail (8) and a fastener (110). The B-B cross section shows the frame with a top rail (5) and side rails (50) joined at the corners.
